AMA – R. Hall mentioned that the Chapter is no longer a member of the local AMA group but is a member of National AMA.

Old Business – D. Smith discussed medical information that can be provided on a form and placed in a red envelope for the left saddlebag.

M. Durenberger mentioned that the ride plan for Day 1 is completed for Milwaukee Ride. Stops near Dealerships and no longer than 2 hours on the bike per leg.

Guest Speaker A. Prince Insurance:

- Insurance is normally covering the bike more than the rider / passenger

- Many do not understand their insurance coverage
- Explanation of split limit
- Saving money on insurance provides you less coverage
- Andrew offers to review insurance coverage declarations
- 40% of time riders would only get 25K from the driver who causes an accident
- Umbrella policies may not have uninsured / underinsured (UN/UIN)

Drawing held – M. Durenberger did not win again.
